Roles and Usage of the SEw for the Tourism Sector

What is the Skills Framework (SFw)?

The Skills Framework is an integral component of the Industry Transformation Maps and it is co-created by Employers, Industry Associations, Education Institutions, Unions and Government for the Singapore workforce.

The Skills Framework provides key information on sector, career pathways, occupations/job roles, as well as existing and emerging skills required for the occupations/job roles. It also provides a list of training programmes for skills upgrading and mastery.

The Skills Framework aims to create a common skills language for individuals, employers and training providers. This further helps to facilitate skills recognition and support the design of training programmes for skills and career development.

The Skills Framework is also developed with the objectives to build deep skills for a lean workforce, enhance business competitiveness and support employment and employability.

Why is it important for the tourism workforce?

- Spells out the skills and competencies needed for mastery and mobility. The Skills Framework identifies technical and generic skills and competencies that are needed to perform the work requirements of a job.
- Provides up-to-date information about the tourism sector and jobs to inform career and skills development. The Skills Framework covers the sector and employment information, including career pathways which are useful to inform career development and skills upgrading. The Skills Framework also captures emerging skills which are important to inform skills development for competitiveness.
- Provides information on training programmes for skills acquisition. The training programmes listed in the Skills Framework are aligned with industry-validated skills and competencies captured in the Skills Framework. The training providers are responsible for the quality and rigour of their training programmes.

Employee Benefits of Adopting the SEw

Benefits of adopting the Skills Framework for Tourism

- Understand the Tourism sector and the employment prospects as well as emerging jobs and skills in demand.
- Understand the occupational/job scope, work context and the work attributes which are demanded by the employers in the sector.
- Assess one's career aspiration and make an informed decision before settling on a career choice or switching career.
- Appraise the length of the career pathway and the requirements for one to progress into the desired occupation/job role.
- Find suitable programmes based on skills and career needs.

Benefits of adopting the Skills Framework

- Through the Sector and Employment Information, you will be able to gather a broad understanding of the sector and employment prospects.
- From the Occupation/Job Role Descriptions, you will be able to understand the job scope, the work context and the attributes which are required by employers, and gain a deeper understanding of the job and skills nature to inform your new career options.
- The Career Map will provide an assessment of the career pathway and potential development prospects.
- You can use the information to assess your career orientation and prepare application letters and job interviews if you are shortlisted for the positions you have applied for.

WHAT IS IT?

The Skills Framework (SFw) is a SkillsFuture initiative developed for the Singapore workforce to promote skills mastery and lifelong learning, and takes reference from the Industry Manpower Plans (IMPs) where available.

Jointly developed by SkillsFuture Singapore (SSG), Workforce Singapore (WSG), and the Singapore Tourism Board (STB), together with industry associations, training providers, organisations and unions, the Skills Framework for Tourism provides useful information on:

1. Sector Information

Sector Overview - Tourism

- The tourism sector is one of Singapore's key service sectors and economic pillars, contributing approximately four percent of our nation's annual gross domestic product. The sector plays an essential role in reinforcing Singapore's status as a vibrant, global city that attracts talent, businesses, and capital.
- Attractions, meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions (MICE), tours and travel services and hotel and accommodation services play vital roles in making Singapore an exciting travel destination. The tourism sector also enhances the quality and diversity of leisure options for local residents, and helps to create a living environment that Singaporeans can be proud to call home.

Q1 2019 Tourism Visitor Highlights

- In the first quarter of 2019 (Q1), IVA grew 1.0 per cent year-on-year to reach 4.7 million visitors. TR totalled $6.5 billion, a 4.8 per cent decline over the same period last year.
- Gazetted hotel room revenue for Q1 2019 came in at an estimated S$1.0 billion, a 4.3 per cent year-on-year increase.

Common Misconceptions

Common Misconceptions on the SFw

1. "I have met all the skills requirement defined for the occupation/job role. Can I expect to get the salary indicated or get a promotion?"
2. "My pay will increase if I meet all skills requirement for my job role."
3. "I will get a pay increment after attending SFw programs."

 No. Having the required skills does not guarantee promotion or salary raise.

The salary information in the Skills Framework is based on past years' trends, and it provides an indication of the range of the salaries for the occupations/job roles as a reference.

Common Misconceptions on the SFw

4. “Doesn’t the SFw replace the Workforce Skills Qualifications (WSQ) Framework?”

 No. The WSQ Framework remains as a key Continuing Education and Training (CET) credential system to facilitate skills certification and recognition. It makes reference to the skills and competencies in the SFw in developing programmes and qualifications.

The SFw is a guide for individuals, employers and training providers, and contains additional information on sector and employment opportunities, career pathways, occupations and job roles.

Common Misconceptions on the SFw

Here are several other misconceptions which this presentation addresses:

- 5. "I will get a promotion after attending SFw programs."
- 6. "I must attend all training programs in the SFw or I will be fired from job."
- 7. "As an employee, I must attend all the training programmes stated for my job role/occupation in the Skills Framework for the industry I am in."
